

The Qualification exam

The objective of the qualifying exam is to ensure that the student accomplishes his/her study as planned. The evaluation usually takes place 18 month before submission of the thesis. The evaluation is an opportunity to have a status of work completed so far, as well as to take a look on the scientific challenges ahead and the time schedule and formalities for finalizing the PhD thesis and conducting the defense.

<http://phd.au.dk/graduate-schools/scienceandtechnology/studies/qualifyingexam/>

<http://phd.au.dk/graduate-schools/scienceandtechnology/formsandtemplates/>